Course Overview

- Effective strategies lead organizations to stand out—for what they do and how they do it. One of the primary pillars of Portland State University's strategy is to develop students who can apply interdisciplinary learning to real world issues and become leaders of change. PSU's University Studies program is one of the ways that the University has consistently gained international recognition for a distinguished undergraduate experience.

- The University Studies capstone course contributes to this strategic pillar by seeking to enhance the lives of PSU seniors through service learning with partners around the world.

- The Business Strategy Capstone course is designed to provide an integrative experience along two dimensions: 1) as a culminating experience for the University Studies program at PSU; and 2) as a way for business students from different majors to combine their knowledge and work together to work in the field with an external partner on a pressing strategic issue.
Course Objectives

o To pursue the four key goals of the University Studies Program:
  ▪ Inquiry and Critical Thinking
  ▪ Communication
  ▪ The Diversity of the Human Experience
  ▪ Ethics and Social Responsibility

CAPSTONE STUDENT HANDBOOK: Each student is required to review the Handbook which can be found on-line at http://www.pdx.edu/sba/capstone o To develop the ability to incisively apply and effectively communicate business concepts in practical application, including:

  ▪ Conducting a comprehensive analysis of an organization, its industry, competitors, and general environment, and develop viable strategic alternatives.
  ▪ Relating strategic management theory, concepts and frameworks to a partner organization that will serve as the client during the term.

o To develop abilities for assessing competitive environments and identifying value-creating opportunities in the global economy.

o To acquire tools for judging performance, identifying changing industry dynamics, anticipating competitors’ responses, and leading organizational and strategy evolution accordingly.

o To understand the levels of strategy creation spanning business unit-level and corporate-level decision-making.

o To recognize the viewpoints and influences of a variety of stakeholders during strategy creation.

o To understand how strategy formulation demands simultaneous decision-making along multiple dimensions involving innovation, functional areas, and external relationships.

o To engage in highly interactive analyses, where students push each other to their analytical limits in a respectful way and are encouraged to take risks.

Important Notes:

This class will be taught in a dynamic case-method format. Everyone will be expected to attend every class, contribute to class discussions, and visit the Client’s operations if possible. If you happen to have deep personal knowledge about the topic or company to be covered in a given class session, please disclose that information in your short postings before class. Do not search the internet to see “what happened” after the time of the case, because this could limit your thinking as to possible outcomes.

Please do not use a laptop or other electronic devices (e.g., iPads, smart phones, etc.) during class to ensure everyone is engaged in the flow of the analysis. Print your postings and answers to assignment questions to use during class. When working with your team on the Client project, you can use your electronic devices as needed to organize the work.
Course Grading:

Preparation and Analysis of Readings:
- 10% Short write-ups posted to Desire2Learn before each class + Essay (see handout)
- 10% Quizzes
  [Best 2 out of 3; no make-ups]
- 25% Attendance + Contributions during the class discussions

  Please send your instructor an email if you have to miss class

  [Grade of A: requires no unexcused absences and makes high quality contributions in every class; Grade of B: requires no unexcused absences and participates often; Grade of C: requires no unexcused absences and participates rarely; Grade of D (or less): has one or more unexcused absence and/or does not participate.]

Project:
- 30% Final Client Report with Strategic Recommendations
- 25% Client Presentations
  [Note: passion and pictures are essential!]
  [5% PESTEL+6 Forces; 5% VRIO+SW; 5% Financials; 10% Final Presentation to Client]

Short write-ups: Synthesis of Readings

UNST goal: Inquiry and Critical Thinking
UNST goal: Communication

The short write-ups are due by:

- 9:00PM the night before the FRIDAY class session. Late submissions will not be accepted.

The short write-ups will be graded as follows: Superficial = 1; Adequate = 3; Superb = 5.

There are 2 kinds of write-ups:

1) Synthesis of the Readings for the day and Application

In addition to preparing the assignment questions for each class, which can be found below, please post short responses to the appropriate folder in the course’s Desire2Learn site.

The purpose of these postings is to have you step back and formulate a summary view of the material and link the course material to current events.

(1) In 3-4 sentences, how does the reading in the book link to the case? For example, link a new concept from the book to the case.

(2) In 3-4 sentences, describe how an issue in the news confronting a different firm in the industry OR a different firm in a totally different industry is related to concepts covered in the book or case, and what the strategic implications are. Please include the website address in your posting.

The purpose of these short write-ups is to allow students to practice applying strategy constructs to real-world situations. Students should become masterful at relating strategic management theory, concepts and frameworks to current events while understanding the implications of these events for business practice.
Instructions for posting the Short write-ups:

A) Go to the Desire2Learn site for the course
B) Post in appropriate folder for the class session

Again, your Short write-up is in addition to your extensive preparation of the assignment questions for each class, which will form the basis of our class discussion. You do not have to hand in your analysis of the assignment questions, but please print out your Short write-up and your answers to the assignment questions to be ready to discuss both in class.

Additional Information on Student Access to Desire2Learn:

Students registered under the CRN for this course will be automatically added to the Desire2Learn site. Each student needs an ODIN account to be added to the course. The students’ Desire2Learn ID will be the same as their ODIN username and their password will be the last four digits of their PSU Student ID number.

- Class Discussion Contributions

  UNST goal: Inquiry and Critical Thinking
  UNST goal: Communication

A central part in developing your inquiry, critical thinking and communication skills will be active and thoughtful contributions to the class discussion. Your contributions will be critical in refining your managerial and presentation skills, as well as to your learning and the learning of your classmates, so everyone is expected to participate in each class session. I usually ask for volunteers, but I also cold call people throughout the class session.

In evaluating class contributions, I consider both quality and the frequency of contribution, but I weigh quality more heavily. In assessing quality, I consider the following dimensions:

- Is the student taking risks?
- Is the student creatively trying to experiment with strategic thinking and visioning?
- Does the comment simply repeat facts from the case, or does it provide analysis that adds to our understanding of the case and its broader implications?
- Does the comment fit well into the flow of the discussion? Is it linked to the comments of others?
- Does the comment trigger others to enter the analysis?
- Does the comment link the case material effectively to the material from the textbook?
- Does the comment reflect creative thinking, perhaps by tying together multiple viewpoints or tying back to material covered previously in the course?
- Is the comment presented in a clear, compelling manner or is it confusing, repetitive or contradictory?
- Is the comment delivered in a respectful, constructive tone?

In making my overall assessment of class participation, the overarching criterion is “How significantly did this student’s contributions add to the learning of the class as a whole?”

- Readings and Assignments (bring answers to assignment questions to class for discussion)

Course Project: Business Plan and Strategic Recommendation

Working with an interdisciplinary team, you will develop a business plan (OR RELATED DELIVERABLE) for the external Client around a pressing strategic issue identified by the Client. After the second class session, you will be assigned a team with members who represent a cross-section of the business majors.

The team will produce a written report that makes clear recommendations depending on the Client’s scope of work.

Project Deliverables:

- See weekly assignments above. Concepts from the course should be incorporated into all project deliverables as appropriate.

- Some of the richest recommendations come through primary research. Each team is expected to contact at least 3 organizations central to the scope of work. Please incorporate content into report and cite in the bibliography.

- The completed plan should be approximately 20 pages, NOT including charts, graphs, resumes, tables, or outlines—please put those after the text, but explain them in the text. Reports should be typed and organized using subheadings for easy reference. 11 point font, single spaced with sub headings (see sample report).

- Make sure to cite all data and sources for quotes, chart data, etc. Follow the convention of: (Last name of source, date).

- Final deliverables:
  1) the final PowerPoint presentation needs to be posted to D2L before the presentation to the client. Also please bring 2 hard copies, 1 for the instructor and 1 for the client.
  2) Before the start of the designated final exam time in week 11, post the final report to D2L. Also please bring 2 hard copies, 1 for the instructor and 1 for the client.

Typical elements of a Business Plan are as follows. (NOTE THAT YOUR FINAL REPORT MAY HAVE VERY DIFFERENT ELEMENTS DEPENDING ON THE CLIENT’S SCOPE OF WORK.)

I. INTRODUCTION:

- Cover Page – The cover page should clearly state all members of your group alphabetically, the client’s organization, and the date. Please do not go to the time and expense of “fancy” binding and coverings, the report needs to be stapled in the upper left-hand corner with the cover page on top.

- Table of Contents – Sections of the report and page numbers. The appendix must be ordered in the sequence referred by the narrative. Your first appendix will be the management plan – organizational chart (appendix A), through your last required appendix.

- Executive Summary - One-paragraph summaries of each area covered in the body of your plan with the primary recommendations: Company Description, Management, Marketing, Financial, and Strategic (try not to be longer than a single page). The purpose is to provide a quick overview for easy reference and to create interest and “excitement” for the reader to continue into the specifics of the report. The executive summary should be written after the body of the report is completed. Each paragraph should have an associated subheading in the report (i.e. match exactly the evaluation sheet). Each paragraph is similar to a “journal abstract” and should be an informative summary of the critical recommendations of each section.

II. BODY: (* means a chart is required in addition to the FULL narrative)

Management Plan:

- Organizational Structure *
- Human Resources (Wages and Benefits)*
- Production Process* (PERT diagram of process or schedule that is repetitious for the Client’s organization – example: restaurant – daily schedule, remodeler – job schedule, financial planner – client meeting etc.)
- Facility Layout* (if you are suggesting a change to their current operations)

Market Feasibility: Based on the SWOT Analysis presented in class.

- Target Markets Focusing on Client’s Strategic Issue (RESEARCH – should have 5 – 10 “cited” sources)
- Competitor Analysis (3 top competitors, SWOT)
- Product/Service Characteristics (description) & Pricing Strategy
- Promotional Plan (Promotional mix and budget)

Financial Plan: Based on Financial Analyses presented in class.

- Feasibility: How much money does the Client need and how do you propose to get it? Overall will this project be successful and why (last part of this section written – include breakeven and costs)
- Projection of anticipated costs at start up* (research – cite your sources, costco.com and catalogues)
- Projected monthly*
- Sales projections for first year of operation*
- Pro Forma Income Statement for first 5 years*
- Break even projections* (refer to text and www.JavaCalc.com)
- Scenarios given competitor response.

CONCLUSION:
Strategic Recommendations – What should the client do and why regarding its pressing strategic issue? Short term (one year or less), intermediate (2 - 5 year) and long range (5+ year) goals. These are GOALS – Small, Achievable, Measurable and Specific.

If your team identified additional strategic issues that the Client should address in the near term, present your analysis. Also present your analysis of opportunities regarding Vertical Integration,
Diversification, Alliances, Networks, Acquisitions, and International strategy over the next 5 years if not in the scope of work but your team identified attractive opportunities in any of these areas.

ADDITIONAL ATTACHMENTS:

Appendix – All charts, tables, graphs, etc.

Bibliography – I will expect at least five DIFFERENT secondary sources to be utilized, credited, and cited in your report. DIFFERENT means five various sources (i.e. all web sites count as only ONE source). Possible sources include Internet, competitor information, brochures, personal interviews, marketing collateral, periodicals, newspapers, and books (one or more of each type – often students have a total of 10 or more sources within each “type”).
